

GERMAN TUTOR SHOOT J. P. MORGAN

Because Financier Represents British Government in U. S.

PROFESSOR HOLT HAD TWO PISTOLS, GIANT POWDER AND NITROGLYCERINE

Morgan's Butler Grapples with the Intending Assassin Who Said He Wanted War Stopped

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 3.—J. P. Morgan was shot twice by an unidentified man at his home at Glencove, Long Island, this morning. Physicians report that his wounds are not serious. The man who did the shooting was arrested.

REAL REASON FOR ATTACK

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, July 3.—J. P. Morgan is financial agent in this country of the British government. The man who did the shooting entered the Morgan home shortly after 9 o'clock. It is reported that one shot took effect in the hip and the other in the breast, tearing the flesh and passing through the arm. The assailant was overpowered by servants, who placed Mr. Morgan in an automobile and rushed him to Glencove. The gun man asserted that he is a "Christian gentleman" and felt it his duty to persuade Morgan to end the war. The effect of the shooting on the stock market is hardly noticeable. When news of the shooting reached financial circles the question arose as to whether Morgan's activities in connection with the war had anything to do with the motive for the attack. The Morgan company is purchasing agent for the British for munitions and supplies. The newspapers announced only this morning the details of the plan of a group of bankers, with Morgan as one of the leaders, for the flotation of $100,000,000 in a new British war loan.

WELL SUPPLIED WITH EXPLOSIVES

(By Associated Press.)
GLENCOVE, July 3.—Morgan's assailant said his name is F. Holt, and that he is an instructor in German at Cornell. He told the justice that he had no quarrel with Morgan personally, but felt that the time had come to end the war, which was becoming more and more unbearable. He said it was his belief that he should ask Morgan to end it, believing that Morgan could, because of his great influence. "I wanted to see Morgan and reason with him," he said. The assailant came to New York this morning, hired an automobile and went to the Morgan place. In his suitcase at Glencove the authorities found three sticks of dynamite and a bottle of nitro glycerine. He had two revolvers.

BUTLER TO THE RESCUE

(By Associated Press.)
GLENCOVE, July 3.—The man told Morgan's butler that he was an old friend of the financier, but he was refused admission. He pressed a pistol against the stomach of the butler, who retired. The butler screamed and Morgan came. Then the shooting began. The assailant was overpowered by the butler, who struck him with a brass coal hod.

WANTED MORGAN TO END WAR

(By Associated Press.)
GLENCOVE, July 3.—Holt is bleeding from the butler's blow, and is weakening. It is thought that possibly his skull is fractured. Officials after an examination concluded that Holt is not rational. In a statement he said that he didn't want to hurt Morgan, but desired to influence Morgan to use his influence to end the war. The statement was signed "F. Holt, Dallas, Texas, and Ithaca."

HOLT OF GERMAN DESCENT

(By Associated Press.)
ITHACA, July 3.—Holt is of German descent, but not of birth, it is reported. He came a year ago from the University of West Virginia. He was to go to the University of Texas in the fall as a professor.

EXPECT A LARGE CROWD AT FIGHT

MALONE WORKING OUT TO MEET VICTOR

WINNER OF GOLDFIELD BATTLE TO BE FRANKIE'S RING ANTAGONIST

A record crowd is expected Monday afternoon to witness two of the best scraps billed in Tonopah for many moons. The fact that Jack Bratton will not fight on that day is not expected to keep a big number of fight fans away from the ringside at the Airdome; the "matchmaker" for the Tonopah Athletic club has secured the best talent in sight for this show and the fans can rest assured that they will see plenty of action. Jack Minnick, who is the manager of Frank Malone, is back from a trip to San Francisco and it is said that while on the coast he heard so much about Malone that he is willing to gamble that his boy can beat any featherweight in the game. Minnick will have Malone step for eight or ten rounds with several good sparring partners today and tomorrow afternoon at the Northern bar gymnasium. All fans are invited to get a line on the boys and to watch them through their training stunts.

We need not worry about Malone's opponent as the ten-round fight they are to have in Goldfield will just serve to put the winner on edge for two days later. Many good boxers have been known to fight three and four times a week and get away with it. Moore is a good boy and we all know it. Not much of this fellow McAuliffe is known around Tonopah but after seeing him work the fans of Goldfield refuse to bet against him.

Ranier, who boxes White four rounds, will work out with Malone for the next two days at the Northern. White sends word from Goldfield that he will take no chances on losing any friends, and that he will win his fight with Jack Smith in Goldfield on the 3rd.

HOW TONOPAH, KNOWN THEN AS BUTLER CITY, CELEBRATED ITS FIRST FOURTH

Fourteen years ago the first Fourth of July oration was delivered in Tonopah, which was then a camp of about 500 population, mostly dwellers in tents strung up and down the gulch or on the hillside where the leasers first delved for treasure. Bob Gordon was the orator. He was one of the locators of the G. & H. tunnel, which property is now a portion of the estate of the Tonopah Belmont Development company.

When Bob completed his manuscript for the address he came down the hill and read it to the man selected to read the Declaration of Independence. It was pronounced good, but Bob was warned not to let anyone else see it. He happened, however, to deliver it to a friend in the Tonopah club, who expressed his approval by inviting Bob to have a drink. Although the orator was not a drinking man, he accepted. This happened up and down the line of saloons and the result was that the speaker of the day became puffed out on the night of the 1st. The operation was continued on the 2nd, only he got drunker. The 3rd also witnessed progression in repeating the oration and the drinks.

ILLEGAL SALE OF FIREWORKS STOPPED

This afternoon, noting that a number of small boys were firing off firecrackers, which is in violation of the ordinance, as well as the sale thereof, Chief of Police Evans and Chief Kelly of the fire department made the rounds of the stores and warned merchants. Two Chinese stores were found with fireworks on hand. The explosives were seized, but the proprietors were not arrested.

TAKE MEALS DOWN TOWN

Excellent meals will be served on July 4th and 5th at the Mirpah hotel, Harrington house, Montana cafe and Tonopah grill. No necessity to cook at home during the celebration.

NAVAL ENGAGEMENT ON THE NORTH SEA

WARSHIP OF GERMANY IS BEACHED

Three Turkish Merchantmen Are Sunk by a Russian Submarine—Belgian Steamer and British Vessel Torpedoed—Crews Rescued

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, July 3.—Russian accounts of a naval engagement off Gothland record the beaching of a German warship and the flight of several accompanying cruisers with accompanying torpedo boats which the Russian fleet engaged in a fog on the Baltic. Unofficial dispatches say that the beached vessel was the mine layer Albatross, and that the Russians finally retired because of the numerical superiority of the German fleet. Other naval activities include the sinking of three Turkish merchantmen by a Russian submarine in the Black sea, the torpedoing of the Belgian steamer Boduognat, also the Britisher Gadsby. The crews were rescued.

FOUR INJURED WHEN FIRE THREATENS TO DESTROY THE KIRCHEN RESIDENCE

Rare heroism was displayed by a number of people at a fire late yesterday afternoon which threatened the destruction of the beautiful two-story stone residence of John G. Kirchen, general manager of the Tonopah Extension Mining company. Two of the fire fighters are in the Mine Operators' hospital and two others had their injuries treated, but are not seriously burned.

Those most painfully injured were Percival Nash, secretary of the Dexter-White Caps Mining company of Manhattan, and Ed J. Hogg of the office department of the Tonopah Extension. Their burns will cause them to be confined in the hospital for a week or ten days, but there is no danger of a serious outcome. Thomas Landsborough had his right hand painfully burned and both hands of Irma

CONTEST CLOSES AT SIX O'CLOCK

CONSOLATION PRIZES TO BE GIVEN LOSERS

GODDESS OF LIBERTY COMMITTEE IS TENDERED VOTE OF THANKS

This is the last day of the contest for the election of a Goddess of Liberty for the Fourth of July celebration and only 1661 votes separate the leader, Miss Elizabeth Lynch, from the last of the candidates. The result is still as much in doubt as it was at the beginning and doubtless the voting will be fast and furious before the polls close at 6 o'clock this evening.

Mrs. Arthur Hunt, the chairman of the Goddess of Liberty committee, and her assistants, have worked so conscientiously and so well in this division of the preparations for the Fourth that the executive board at a meeting held last night, directed the Bonanza to express in the paper today their sincere thanks to the ladies of the committee and appreciation of their earnest and intelligent efforts.

By the way, there is a little surprise in store for the candidates who are unsuccessful, but who have struggled to the last. The consolation will be in the form of gifts for each. While they will possess some intrinsic value, they will be chiefly prized for the recollections they will bring up in future years.

Remember that the polls close tonight at 6 o'clock sharp and no ballots will be received after that time. Following is the standing of the candidates at the count last evening:

Elizabeth Lynch	5597
Lena Fraser	5150
Elizabeth Mervor	4545
Grace Fowler	4290
Lucile Murphy	3962
Mary Harrington	2846

It lays the blame for Madero's death to this alleged combination. It says they are planning another revolution.
